Monthly Character Trait: Responsibility

January 9, 2018

Ms. Alexander's Class

Social Studies:

In social studies we are studying the 'Age of Exploration' and the specific technology and tools explorers of the time used to travel and navigate.

Reading/English Language Arts:

This week we are focused on the reading strategy of drawing conclusions and making generalizations about a character or group of people within a text. Text for the week "Molly Pitcher".

Mrs. Fearn's Class

Math 5.NBT.7 divide decimals to hundredths, using concrete models or drawings and strategies based on place value, properties of operations, and/or the relationship between addition and subtraction; relate the strategy to a written method and explain the reasoning used.

Science

5-ESS1-2 (B) This week we will investigate how parts of our solar system interact.

Notes

Preparation for the school day

All scholars should arrive to class before 8:30 which is the tardy time for our school. Scholars should be prepared daily with sharpened pencils, agenda books, class folders, coloring utensils, glue sticks, and scissors.

Scholars should be in full uniform including the a black belt, all black shoes, and if an under layer should be worn underneath short sleeves uniform tops it should be white or navy blue only.

Important Dates

Monday January 15th - MLK Day (PGCPS Schools Closed)

Friday January 12th - An assessment will be given on Long Division and/or Division with decimals in Mrs. Fearn's class for math. A comprehension quiz on drawing conclusions and making generalizations will be given on Friday in Reading. In social studies a quiz about the tools of the 'Age of Exploration' will be given.
